

Isotopes in Environmental and Health Studies
Volume 44 Issue 4 2008

Content	Pages
Preface Author: Gerhard Gebauer	335 - 336
Tracing the geographical origin of early potato tubers using stable hydrogen isotope ratios of methoxyl groups Authors: Frank Keppler; John T. G. Hamilton	337 - 347
Soil carbon isotopic composition and soil carbon content in an agroecosystem during six years of Free Air Carbon dioxide Enrichment (FACE) Authors: Anette Gieseemann; Hans-Joachim Weigel	349 - 363
Thermal stability of soil organic matter pools and their turnover times calculated by $\delta^{13}\text{C}$ under elevated CO_2 and two levels of N fertilisation Authors: Maxim Dorodnikov; Andreas Fangmeier; Anette Gieseemann; Hans-Joachim Weigel; Karl Stahr; Yakov Kuzyakov	365 - 376
N_2O concentration and isotope signature along profiles provide deeper insight into the fate of N_2O in soils Authors: Stefanie Daniela Goldberg; Klaus-Holger Knorr; Gerhard Gebauer	377 - 391
A methodological approach to improve estimates of nutrient gains by par- tially myco-heterotrophic plants Authors: Katja Preiss; Gerhard Gebauer	393 - 401
Conference report Author: Peter Krumbiegel	403 - 404
Acknowledgement to our referees Authors: Peter Krumbiegel; Gerhard Strauch	405 - 406
